To Whom It May Concern:

ROBIN KING & ASSOCIATES LTD

As a busy law firm it's critical to have effective, efficient cleaning services for our business. Robin King & Associates Ltd has been our cleaning company since 2004 and has provided consistency of both staff and cleaning services.

The team has always presented a friendly face from the answering of the phone or emails down to the people who do the on-site "running repairs" where necessary at a moments notice.

Quality of cleaning is very important when choosing a cleaning company but with a reasonable margin for human error and the quick response times of management when emergencies come up, we recommend Robin King & Associates as a good service provider.

From a management perspective I've been very happy with the services we've received and the manor in which it has been performed.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish to discuss any of the above information.
