

To whom it may concern

Robin King and Associates Limited have been the cleaners for Kensington Swan since August 2006 and presently clean our offices on 3 levels in Novell house (Wellington).

During my 18 months with Kensington Swan 18 months, I have found Robin King's cleaning service adequate and their management team very approachable.

On several occasions we have needed Robin King to come in during the day (eg. shattered glass door) and they have been very prompt and completed any extra services required over and above their normal duties.

In 2008 we brought in a new environment 'green' policy which Robin King was very helpful with providing different options and advice and more than willing to meet our recycling requirements.

Yours faithfully
Kensington Swan
